Canton Post Office

5. LIAO Chieh-min (勞傑民), a post office official, after his return from meetings in Peiping announced the following changes in the Canton Post Office:
- Qualified staff members will be sent to Southern University for training, at the end of which period they will be given assignments in other areas. During the training period the candidates will receive one-half their regular pay.
  - Elderly employees will be asked to retire and will receive a small retirement fund.
  - Three persons will do the work which had been done previously by five persons to promote economy.
6. The purchase of bonds by staff members and workers of the Canton Post Office is compulsory and each employee is required to spend about 15 percent of his monthly salary for this purpose. A group of ten postal workers must purchase 100 shares of bonds at a cost of about 500 HK dollars. CH'EN Chi-ming (陳齊明) chief of the Personnel Department has subscribed for 20 shares.

Canton Railroad Administration

7. The Canton Railroad Administration has received an order from the Canton-Hankow Railroad Administration to carry out 75 military runs between Canton and Hankow by the end of February.
